

CONTENTS

| | | |
|------------|--|-----|
| | Preface and Acknowledgments | VII |
| | Introduction: The Last Book on Postmodernism | 1 |
| Chapter 1. | Apocalyptic Thinking Now: The Ends of Postmodernism | 23 |
| Chapter 2. | Orthos Logos, Recta Ratio : Pope John Paul II and Postmodern Philosophy | 39 |
| Chapter 3. | Living in the Eschata : The End of Christendom and Prospects for a Global Spiritualism | 53 |
| Chapter 4. | Acts of Education: Rorty, Derrida and the Ends of Literature | 69 |
| Chapter 5. | Bodies of Knowledge and Knowledges of the Body | 85 |
| Chapter 6. | The Promise of Enlightenment Europe: Habermas, Derrida and Education | 105 |
| Chapter 7. | Education, Power and Freedom: Third Way Governmentality, Citizen-Consumers and the Social Market | 123 |
| Chapter 8. | Geophilosophy, Education, and the Pedagogy of the Concept | 143 |

| | |
|---|-----|
| Chapter 9. The Narrative Turn and the Poetics of Resistance: Towards A New Language for Critical Educational Studies (with Tina Besley) | 155 |
| Chapter 10. Rorty and the Philosophy of Dialogue: The Cultural Politics of Conversation | 173 |
| Chapter 11. Pedagogies of Philosophy, Dialogue and User-Generated Cultures (with Rushika Patel) | 193 |
| Chapter 12. The Last Post? Post-Postmodernism and the Linguistic U-Turn in Educational Theory | 207 |
| Index | 221 |